

Campus Agreement - Residential College UCR

Registration at the UCR campus

UCR has a set of rules stated in the Student Handbook and other Codes of Conducts that are inextricably linked to student life on UCR's residential campus.

All students acknowledge, read and are subject to the Student Handbook, which includes the Education & Examination Regulations (section C), and the Student Charter (section D), which consists of the (I) the Financial Commitments, (II) the General rules concerning campus facilities, (III) the ICT code and (IV) the Student Life Code.

These documents – including yearly changes are approved by UCR Board – are valid throughout the full study period at UCR. Any such changes will be communicated to every student via the yearly updated Student Handbook which will be available on the intranet before the start of the academic year.

All the above can be found on the website:

I, initials prefix last name, st. nr. student numbers, declare that I

- * am aware of the rules in the Student Handbook and the other Codes of Conduct;
- * understand the rules in the Student Handbook and the other Codes of Conduct;
- * agree that the rules in the Student Handbook apply during the study at UCR;
- * will comply with them as a student of UCR and as a resident of the UCR campus;
- * will have completed their official (re-)enrolment at UCR/UU before semester start, year, and accepts any (financial) consequences if the registration is delayed;
- * understand that the above rules apply to the academic buildings, student housing of Gapph Student Housing and other buildings associated with the UCR Campus. Specific restrictions may apply to relevant buildings.

I declare that the above is an accurate representation of the facts.
